DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AFFILIATES & PUBLISHERS?

RevGlue understands each publisher needs and supports them with monetising their websites.

Publishers working via the affiliate networks who manage their affiliate network relations and communications are known as affiliates and they earn 100% commission on all affiliate tools at RevGlue.

Publishers who are not familiar with affiliate networks and do not wish to work with them due to the complexities of the data & account management and lack technical resources but still want to monetise their websites, blogs, social networks or setup coupons, cashback websites. These publishers can work with RevGlue publisher tools that are built to support these sort of publishers on revenue share model.
